NEW NOMINATIONS.

Several Appointments Made by the President.

PROMINENT PLACES FILLED.

Isaac P. Gray of Indiana Gets Appointed Minister to Mexico—Patrick A. Collins of Massachusetts Goes to London as Consul General—Assistant Secretary of State Appointed—Other Lucky Men.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the following nominations:

Isaac P. Gray of Indiana to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Mexico.

Patrick A. Collins of Massachusetts to be consul general of the United States at London.

Lieutenant, junior grade, Herbert O. Dunn, to be a lieutenant; lieutenant, junior grade, Arthur W. Dod, to be a lieutenant; Ensign Joseph Beale, to be a lieutenant, junior grade.

Ensign Edwards E. Leiper, to be a lieutenant, junior grade; Fred Brown Bussey of Kentucky and Edward Mansfield Shipp of Virginia to be assistant surgeons in the navy.

Isaac P. Gray, who is nominated to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Mexico, was born Oct. 18, 1828, in Chester county, Pa., located in Union City, Ind., in 1855, served a short time in the Union army and one term in the state senate, has been lieutenant governor as well as governor and is a lawyer and business man, well known, not only over his own state, but the whole United States.

Patrick A. Collins of Boston was born in County York, Ireland, in 1844, and came to America when a child. He graduated at the Harvard law school in 1871, was a member of the Massachusetts legislature for several terms and a member of congress for three terms. He was a delegate to the Chicago convention and led the Massachusetts forces in the fight for Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Quincy, nominated for assistant secretary of state, is a Massachusetts Democrat who represents the younger element of the Democracy of that state. He has long been a friend of the president and conducted the Democratic campaign literature bureau with great success last fall. He is also national committeeman from Massachusetts.

Robert A. Maxwell, nominated for fourth assistant postmaster general, is a wealthy, retired business man. He resides at Batavia, N. Y., and has been prominent in New York politics. He has always fought the Hill wing of the Democratic party. Governor Flower a year ago removed him from the office of insurance commissioner, and his removal was declared to have been the result of his earnest labors in behalf of the Cleveland wing of the Democracy.

Session of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The senate yesterday discussed for nearly an hour the question as to the reception at the present extraordinary session of business of a legislative nature. While there was some difference of opinion as to the abstract right of permitting the introduction of bills or joint resolutions involving legislation there seemed to be a general concurrence of views that it would not be desirable to have any matters of that kind acted upon, or even presented. Nevertheless, a resolution offered formulating that sentiment was not acted upon, but went over until the next meeting of the senate, which will be on Monday.

The feature of the day's proceedings was the presentation in executive session of the president's message withdrawing the Hawaiian treaty.

Hawaiian Treaty Called Back.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—President Cleveland yesterday sent to the senate a message withdrawing the Hawaiian treaty which has been pending in the senate. It is said the president wants to consider it in the cabinet and that he intends to renew it in a modified form. It is believed he favors a protectorate only.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Telegrams from Honolulu, via San Francisco, by the Hawaiian commissioners now in Washington, indicate that the state of affairs in that country remains in statu quo. Matters are quiet and a general feeling of satisfaction prevails with the progress of negotiations in Washington.

The withdrawal from the senate of the annexation treaty by President Cleveland is not believed by the commissioners to indicate that he intends to crush it by that means, as the commissioners say they understand the executive is inclined favorably to the general proposition to annex the islands. They have as yet received no intimations from officers of the new administration as to the course that will be pursued in the matter, nor have they been in receipt of any communication from the secretary of state expressing a desire for further consultation regarding it.

Both Prince David of the royal family of Hawaii and Paul Neumann, the representative here of the deposed queen, are out of the city for a few days, the former having gone to New York and the latter to Baltimore.

HILL AND CLEVELAND.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The one great feature of interest in political circles yesterday was the visit of Senator David B. Hill to his greatest political rival, President Cleveland. Senator Hill came to the White House yesterday morning by appointment, presumably arranged by Congressman Rockwell of New York, during his visit to Mr. Cleveland on Tuesday. That his was more than a mere perfunctory call is attested by the length of the interview. It lasted 20 minutes, and during that time Mr. Cleveland received no cards from the waiting politicians in the cabinet room.

Mr. Hill came early. The great flood of office-seekers had not begun to flow into the White House when he arrived. He passed rapidly through the hallway in the public part of the mansion to the room of Private Secretary Thurber, who evidently had been posted, for he ushered Mr. Hill into the adjoining executive office without a moment's delay.

Mr. Hill, by virtue of his office as senator from the state of New York, would be obliged by the unwritten code of official etiquette to call on a new president elected by his party unless the personal relations between the two were of such a character as to make a personal visit seem like hypocrisy.

But an official visit of this character would not last more than a minute—in fact just long enough for the caller to shake the president's hand and to make a few pleasant remarks about the condition of the thermometer.

When Mr. Hill entered the president's room word was sent to Doorkeeper Loeffler that Mr. Cleveland was very busily engaged and could not see any visitors for some time. As a consequence the arriving delegation soon filled the cabinet room, and by the time Mr. Hill left the White House there were more men than seats in the apartment.

The interview was, of course, of a strictly private character, but from the fact that it had been previously arranged and from its length there can be little doubt that it was more than a mere official call.

Twenty minutes is an unusual length of time for any caller—no matter how distinguished—to remain in the president's room during these busy days in the executive mansion, and if Mr. Hill and Mr. Cleveland talked airy nothings for a third of an hour, while a crowd of patriotic citizens were waiting to be heard, they were particular that none of their remarks were overheard.

When Mr. Hill had finished with the president, he lost no time in leaving the White House, and walked rapidly away with Colonel John S. McEwan of Buffalo, who had been a member of Mr. Cleveland's staff while the latter was governor of New York.

GONE FAR ENOUGH.

The Government of Brazil Will Take in Hand These Revolutionists.

VALPARAISO, March 10.—News just received from Rio Grande do Sul indicates that the general government of Brazil has finally determined to crush the revolution which the federals have so long carried on in that state. A newspaper correspondent telegraphs this news, and adds that the federals have been defeated at San Borja, Piratini and other points, losing many of their troops and horses.

These reverses and the failure to secure arms and ammunition have demoralized the federals. Their troubles have been increased by the Uruguayan authorities, who have stationed troops along the border to prevent the revolutionaries from seeking hiding places on Uruguayan soil. A large body of revolutionaries, who sought to retreat into Uruguay, have been ordered back.

SENATOR ROACH.

He Denies the Report That He Intends to Resign.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Roach, the new member from North Dakota, has entered an emphatic denial to the story sent out from Grand Forks to the effect that he intended to resign. "There is absolutely nothing in it," said Mr. Roach, "and I am certain that nothing I or any of my friends may have said can be construed as showing an intention on my part to resign."

"On the contrary, I am very well satisfied here, and propose to stay until I have served out my term. The press of the state has spoken in very complimentary terms concerning my election, and only adverse comment was because Republicans permitted it to become possible to elect a Democrat. No, you can say for me that all reports that I will resign are without foundation, regardless of whence they emanate."

Schooner and Crew Lost.

PROVIDENCE, March 10.—Schooner Gracie D. Buchanan, which has been given up for lost by her agents, carried a crew of 10 men besides her captain. The seamen were shipped in this city but were obtained in New York by a local shipping agent. The schooner was bound from Baltimore for Portland, Me. She arrived off Portland Feb. 20, and was reported. She was probably blown out to sea and lost, as nothing has been heard of her since.

Murderer Resisted.

CHARLESTON, March 10.—Lavelle, the wife murderer, who was to have been hanged here today, has been respite by Governor Tillman until April 7.

AT HIS OLD HOME.

Ex-President Harrison Is Now a Private Citizen.

HE IS RESTING IN RETIREMENT.

His Books, His Daughter and Baby McKee Will Be His Companions For a Time—His Future Actions Not Yet Decided Upon—Other Information About the Ex-President.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 10.—Benjamin Harrison, after four years of service as president of the United States, is a private citizen again. He returned to Indianapolis March 6 and is again domiciled in his handsome house. It is a lonely place now, for the beloved helpmate who left the old home with him four years ago to be mistress of the White House has been taken from him. But his daughter, Mrs. McKee, and his favorite grandson, Baby McKee, and his well-stocked library are with him, and the old home is consequently far from being a cheerless one.

The ex-president's intention is to take a long rest, with his mind wholly free from business cares of any description. It is probable that the next few weeks of his freedom will be devoted to his grandson—the famous Baby McKee—whom he loves so well. In fact, during the last few weeks of his term the president spent much of his leisure time with the little one, while they planned together the good times they are now enjoying. The president's principal desire has seemed to be to sit once more in his old chair amid his old surroundings in his library at the old home.

The Harrison house, surrounded by a spacious and neatly kept lawn, on North Delaware street, was occupied during Mr. Harrison's presidential term by Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Fraser. They vacated it on Feb. 19, and the following Monday the household furniture of Mr. Harrison began to arrive from Washington. It was taken immediately to the old home, unpacked and arranged as nearly as possible as it used to be when Mr. Harrison was one of Indianapolis' leading lawyers.

For a time at least Mr. Harrison will live a life of considerable retirement, giving much attention to Baby McKee and taking walks, as has always been his habit, about the neighborhood. His daughter, Mrs. McKee, and the children will stay at the old home with him for a time and do all they can to lessen the feeling of sorrow brought about by the absence of Mrs. Harrison.

Josephine, who acted in the capacity of Mrs. Harrison's maid for so long, is still serving as housekeeper for Mr. Harrison, as she has done at Washington since Mrs. Harrison's death.

John B. Elam of Indianapolis, the ex-president's former law partner, does not think he will accept the offer to deliver lectures regularly, though possibly he may deliver a lecture at the college opening. Mr. Harrison is and always has been a man of affairs. The pleasures of authorship were never attractive to him. Indeed he has expressed the belief that there are already too many books in the world. Mr. Elam believes that Mr. Harrison will have no more liking for lectures than for writing books, and that the position of instructor of young men would not be one congenial to his nature.

Mr. Harrison will not resume his law partnership with Mr. Elam, but ex-Attorney General Miller will join the firm of Elam & Winter. It is probable that after the ex-president is well rested he will resume the practice of law to the extent of taking large and important cases in the higher courts, both as counsel and advocate.

During the entire time of Mr. Harrison's absence from Indianapolis he retained his membership in the First Presbyterian church and in the Indianapolis Literary club, composed of the prominent thinking men of the city, and always forwarded his club dues with regularity.

The last visit of Mr. Harrison to Indianapolis previous to his recent home coming was last November, when he followed the remains of Mrs. Harrison to Crown Hill cemetery.

It is said that Mr. Harrison took more than half of his salary, or $100,000, with him when he left Washington. He was worth about $50,000 before he left Indianapolis, and his wealth is now believed to be between $150,000 and $175,000.

COLLISION OF TRAINS.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—A passenger train on the central division of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, from Oxford, Pa., which was due here at 9:20 o'clock yesterday morning, collided with a freight train on the Wilmington and Northern railroad at Chad's Ford junction about 6:45 o'clock. Engineer Phillips of the passenger train was killed, and Conductor William Cummings of the same train was badly injured.

The passenger engine plunged into the middle of the freight train and then rolled down an embankment by the side of Brandywine creek. The passenger train was derailed. The railroad officials in this city do not know the cause of the wreck, but it is supposed to have been due to a disregard of signals.

Big Haul From a Woman's Pocket.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Mrs. Mary J. Washburn, the head purchaser for a large millinery firm in Chicago, came to this city last Monday to purchase a part of the spring stock. She brought with her a draft for a considerable sum of money and $1,600 in cash. While on Broadway yesterday her pocketbook was picked and her pocketbook, containing the money and draft, was taken.

A STRANGE ACCIDENT.

A Saw Splits One Man's Heart and Severes Another's Arm.

WYANDOTTE, Mich., March 10.—Hereman Meinke and Amos Coan were using an old fashioned machine saw Wednesday afternoon converting a lot of timber into logs and sticks. Meinke placed an extra heavy and knotty piece of wood on the table. When the blade had dug its way about half through the wood it struck a snag and the saw leaped from its bearings.

In its flight through the air it took a slightly upward direction and the blade struck Meinke squarely in the breast. The saw severed the ribs as if they were made of paper, and striking the heart full in the center cut that organ in two. Meinke was thrown backwards by the force of the blow and the saw, thus released, flew over the dead man's shoulder and struck Coan on the left arm, cutting that member clean of about four inches below the shoulder. The accident was caused by the breaking of a wooden screw with which the saw had been fastened to the frame.

FIRE IN A TRUNK FACTORY.

Several Firemen Hurt in a Milwaukee Blaze.

MILWAUKEE, March 10.—Fire yesterday in the trunk factory of Romadik Brothers, on Third street between Cedar and Wells, caused a loss of $55,000. Several firemen were badly injured.

The injured are: John Kress, hurt about the back and shoulder seriously; Albert Christine, nose broken, injured in back and head; Charles Rafferty, internally injured; Florence Donohue, badly bruised; Lieutenant Muskow, badly bruised; Captain Sebastian Branc, slightly injured; John Gezewski, injured about head, serious; Adolph Cotten, gash in the back of head and skull fractured; John Radke, badly bruised.

RESCUED, That this association has carefully examined the schedule of wages paid by the Chicago roads to foremen and helpers in switching service, and that it finds that the scale of wages paid on the Chicago lines is practically uniform; and we find that the switchmen of Chicago and vicinity are now paid the highest rate ever paid for a similar service and higher than is paid in many localities.

Further, that the revenue from freight and passenger traffic has constantly decreased and the cost of the service has constantly increased to the extent that no advance in wages can be granted, and that no change can be made from the present schedules of rules affecting the compensation of men engaged in this service.

This answer was sent to the officers of the switchmen's association at once, and ends the trouble so far as the managers are concerned. The switchmen have not yet determined what course they will pursue and officers of the association decline to discuss the situation. If they should decide to strike, the fight against them would be a bitter one as the general managers of the 32 roads have determined to act as a unit and fight the men as one road.

A still more significant determination reached by the general managers is an agreement to discharge all union men on their lines in case the roads should be crippled by a strike of switchmen.

This will apply to engineers, conductors, firemen and in fact all branches of organized railroad labor. The general managers say they will not pay union men for doing nothing, when their idleness is enforced by strikers to whom they are giving aid and encouragement.

In the event of a general dismissal of union men the vacancies are to be filled as rapidly as possible with nonunion men, the roads to act in concert in securing new men and to distribute them according to the needs of the individual roads.

Chief of Police McClaughey was present at the general managers' meeting and promised all aid in his power to enforce order in event of a strike.

The switchmen demand that the rate of pay for day foremen be made 32 cents per hour, day helpers 30 cents per hour, night foremen 34 cents, night helpers 32 cents, and that 10 hours' work be guaranteed each crew night or day. This is an advance of 5 cents per hour.

ONLY HER AGENTS HOPE.

The Missing Naronic Now Out Almost a Month.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Naronic has been out 26 days and has not been spoken nor seen since she left the Mersey early on the morning of Feb. 11 for this port. Her agents are still hopeful that she may be heard from. The Maritime Register has this to say editorially:

The nonarrival of the White Star steamer Naronic is causing much alarm, although it is probable that she will be heard from either at Fayal or in tow with machinery damaged. That she has not been sighted proves nothing as against either of these chances. Fayal is a port in the Azores, about 300 miles west of St. Michael, and there is not, it is said, frequent communication between the two islands. St. Michael is a coaling station, and nearly all steamships out of coal obtain fresh supplies there. It is not impossible that the Naronic may be heard from at Fayal, but that she will be sighted in tow seems to be unlikely.

The British steamer Ellanoch, which arrived last night, saw nothing of the freighter; all other arrivals had the same report to make.

Captain Lindsay of the White Star steamship Runic conferred with the agents yesterday, and gave it as his opinion that the Naronic was safe, although probably badly disabled. The White Star people have all along held the same views. Captain Lindsay advances the theory that has been entertained by other shipping men that the Naronic has been disabled in one of the furious gales that have prevailed during the past month, and has not only drifted far out of her course and out of the course of steamships generally, but has been unable to beat back against the unfavorable winds, owing to her crippled sailing powers.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

The Democrats of Mason County are requested to assemble within their respective voting districts and at the places used as polls at the last November election, Saturday, March 25, 1893, at 2 o'clock p.m., and select a member of County Democratic Executive Committee, to serve two years or until their successors are chosen, by order of the State Central Committee.

The committeemen selected by said meetings will meet at court house, Maysville, Ky., Saturday, April 1, 1893, at 2 o'clock p.m., for purpose of selecting a Chairman and Secretary for said County Executive Committee.

The present committeemen will preside at the temporary organization of meetings held within voting districts in which they now reside; and in such districts as do not contain a member of present Executive Committee the assembled Democrats will select their own temporary Chairman.

Remember the importance and benefits of organization, and hold meetings in your respective voting districts without fail; and select the most active and effective Democrats only.

J. N. KENOE, Chairman.

G. W. ROGERS, Secretary.

GOVERNOR BROWN's muchly promised response to ex-Governor Buckner's recent letter still hangs fire. We are assured, however, that it will be forthcoming in a few days.

Four years ago, when the Democrats turned the Treasury over to the Republicans, it contained $96,000,000 of free gold. This week when the Republicans passed it back to the Democrats, there was only $1,250,000 of free gold in the Treasury, says the Louisville Times.

THE Mt. Sterling Advocate wants the Republican Postmaster at that place fired for "offensive partisanship". The P. M. is editor of the Republican paper at that point. It is rather difficult for one in such a position to keep from displaying a good deal of partisanship at times.

"M. H." of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, predicted defeat for the Democratic ticket last fall, but the country knows the result. He is now predicting the failure of the new administration. He is so thoroughly blinded he can see no good in the Democracy. Poor Halstead!

The Governor's Reasons.

The statement was made yesterday that Governor Brown had refused to pardon William Price, of this city. He indorsed on the petition the following reasons for declining to grant the pardon: "There is a conflict of testimony in this case on the point as to which of the combatants first fired at the other. Of that fact the jury, who heard the witnesses, were the best judges. They heard all of the evidence, arguments of counsel, and were guided by the instructions of the court. They said Price was guilty. If the evidence did not support the verdict, then the duty of the Judge was to have set it aside. It seems he believed and sustained it. I can not, upon ex parte statements and opinions of Price's friends, release him, and, therefore, must decline to interfere."

John L. Sullivan in Louisville.

John L. Sullivan and company appeared at Louisville Monday night in "The Man from Boston," and were greeted by one of the largest crowds ever seen in the theater. The Times says: "Curiosity to see the man, and not the play, drew most of the audience, but it may be said that Sullivan's work was cleverly done, and his rendition of the leading role was an agreeable surprise. There is nothing great about the play, but it is full of thrilling climaxes, two of the most noticeable features being a foot-ball game and a prize fight. Every exciting situation brought forth a round of applause, and the interest was kept up until the fall of the curtain. The company supporting Sullivan is a good one, including such clever performers as Grace O'Neil, Boddy Mack, H. G. Clark and W. S. Polard."

Saloon War at Lexington.

The Board of Alderman refuse to grant any saloon license, unless the applicants give bond to forfeit their license if they are caught open on Sunday. The Common Council is in favor of omitting the Sunday closing clause from the bond, but the Aldermen have strenuously insisted on it, and the result is no license can be taken out by saloon-keepers. All the saloons in town have run without license since March 1.

Suit was brought in the Circuit Court to compel the Aldermen to grant the license, but Judge Parker dismissed it. Judge Parker decided that saloon-keepers can not force the city of Lexington to grant them license.

HORACE JANUARY.

He Answered the Final Summons Thursday Afternoon—Sketch of Deceased.

Although it was known that he was seriously ill, yet his friends were hardly prepared for the sad announcement that he had answered the final summons and gone to his eternal rest.

He had been in declining health since he was stricken with blindness some years since, and of late had suffered from partial paralysis. About ten days ago he became much worse, and from that on his condition gradually grew more critical until the end came at the hour named.

Deceased belonged to one of Maysville's oldest and most influential families. He was a native of this city, and was a son of Andrew M. January. His paternal grandfather was one of the pioneers of Kentucky, and lost his life in the famous battle of the Blue Licks, where so many of the States' early settlers were slain, in that memorable conflict with the Indians. His mother was a Huston, and belonged to another one of Kentucky's old families.

At the age of only seventeen deceased enlisted in the Tenth Kentucky Regiment as a defender of the Union early in the commencement of the late war, and remained in service several years. After the war he was engaged in mercantile pursuits in this city for a time as a member of the firm of January & Huston, wholesale grocers and commission merchants. He was also interested in the firm of January & Wood, proprietors of the Maysville Cotton Mills.

In 1879 or 1880 he was elected Mayor of Maysville, and honored with the office five or six successive terms. At the close of his last term as Mayor he met with a great affliction in the loss of his sight, necessitating his retirement from the active business pursuits of life.

His wife, who is a daughter of Mr. D. Wilson of Flemingsburg, survives him, and he leaves a bright and interesting family of four children—two sons and two daughters.

Deceased was one of the most honored and beloved Knights Templar in Kentucky. He was Past Commander of Maysville Commandery No. 10, and also Past Grand of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky.

A man of fine presence, courteous and pleasant in his treatment of all, genial and kind-hearted, he was loved and esteemed wherever known.

The funeral will occur at the residence at 10:30 a. m. to-morrow. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. J. Nugent, pastor of the M. E. Church, South. Friends of the family invited. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE CHURCH CONFERENCE.

Be it resolved, That we tender to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, and pray the grace of our Heavenly Father may sustain them, and that His richest blessings and mercy may ever attend them.

Be it further resolved, That these resolutions be published in the daily papers and copies of them be sent to the family of the deceased.

ANDERSON FINCH.

The Summons Came This Morning at 2 o'clock, and He Joins the Silent Majority.

The announcement of the death of Mr. Anderson Finch this morning was so unexpected that it was a severe shock to the community.

About four months ago, accompanied by his wife and eldest daughter, Mr. Finch went to Thomasville, Ga., in hopes of regaining his health. Previous to his departure he had been suffering from pulmonary troubles for some time, and it was thought that a sojourn of a few months in the South would restore him to his wonted vigor.

But the hope-for change never came. He slowly but steadily grew weaker as the winter's days sped away and the springtime approached, and it was decided a few days ago to return home. But how different—how sad—will be that home-coming to his most estimable family.

The family were expected here yesterday, but their departure was postponed a day or so. A telegram was received in the afternoon stating that the party would reach Cincinnati this evening, and Mr. Joseph F. Perrie, one of Mr. Finch's business associates for years, went to that point this morning to meet them. Shortly after his departure, another telegram was received bringing the sad news of Mr. Finch's death. He passed away at Thomasville at 2 a. m.

The remains were shipped from Thomasville at noon to-day, and will reach Maysville to-morrow evening. The funeral arrangements will not be announced until after the family reaches home.

Deceased was born near Mayslick, and was a son of the late Shelton Finch. His grandfather, John Finch, was one of the pioneers of this section. He was about forty-five years of age, just in the prime of life when stricken down and called to his eternal home.

Mr. Finch had been identified with Maysville's banking and business interests for years. He was the largest dealer in grain in the city, and was cashier of Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank at the time of his death. Previous to the starting of this bank he was identified with the First National. In all the walks of life he was a man who commanded the respect and confidence of the community in the fullest sense of these terms.

His death is a great loss to his family and to the commercial interests of the city.

His wife, who is a daughter of Mr. James M. Mitchell, President of the bank first named, survives him, together with three children, one son and two daughters.

EX-CHIEF JUSTICE HINES, of Frankfort, and Judge John E. Cooper, of Mt. Sterling, are in Washington City. Each wants to succeed Judge Jackson as U. S. Circuit Judge.

JASPER YOUNG, of Brazil, Ind., began snapping a rusty old pistol at his bride, "just for fun." She protested, but he continued, and a bullet sped its way through her brain a minute or so later. Same old story. He didn't know the weapon was loaded.

MR. J. J. SHACKLEFORD, of this city, and Mr. Hibler, of Paris, have formed a partnership, and will engage in the carriage and buggy business at that place, opening out about March 15. Mr. Shackelford will retain his interest in the Maysville Carriage Company.

THE House of the Kentucky General Assembly has adopted an amendment to the Husband and Wife bill to the effect that "marriage shall not give to the husband during the life of the wife any estate or interest in her real or personal property, including chattels, realty owned by her at the time of the marriage, or acquired by her after marriage. The husband shall not be liable for any debt or responsibility of the wife contracted by her before marriage, but shall be liable for necessities furnished her after marriage."

A "SPECIAL" from Petersville says: "A few nights ago Major D. D. Lykins had three sides of bacon stolen from his smoke-house. He swore out a search warrant, and several houses were searched, and the bacon in each inspected. Major Steadham's house was entered and a careless search revealed the bacon for which they yearned. Major Lykins was not a little surprised and humiliated, for Steadham's wife is his niece. Steadham was put under arrest. A few minutes later he broke away from one of his guards, William Bodkins, and the latter shot at him four times. Steadham and wife are both well connected."

TENNESSEE CONVICTS.

The Condition of the Women Is Wretched, and That of the Men Debasing.
NASHVILLE, March 10.—The penitentiary visiting committee has made its report to the general assembly. The committee made a thorough investigation of every prison in the state. The convicts of the state are all held under a lease made by the state to the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company, and are by this company and its sub-lessees held and distributed about as follows: At Coal Creek, 139; Oliver Springs or Big Mountain, 134; Imman, 801; Tracy City, 523; main prison, 414; Morrow farm, 49.

The committee reports that on the whole the condition and management of the convicts for the past year have not been a credit to the state by any means, and the committee believes the public conscience needs to be awakened to the disgraceful neglects and cruel outrages that are perpetrated in the name and under the protection of the state. They say that in the enforcement of the criminal law in Tennessee today better principles seem to be entirely ignored, and the penal institutions, instead of tending reform, are veritable nurseries of crime, anarchism and degradation.

The committee, speaking of the life of a convict, says that after his day's work is done in the coal mine, he is chained and driven into a room where 50 others are packed like cattle fixed for shipment, to sleep in his dirty working clothes, in a bed that from three to six months at a time reeks and stinks with filthiness; man who is made to writhe under the lash for failure to complete his task, an almost deindividuated unit of a suffering, brutal throng. Conceive of an unvarying daily round of such a life for 5, 10, 15, or 20 years, say the committee, and you have a partial idea of the fate of some of the poor wretches at Coal Creek.

The committee speaks of the wretched and debasing condition of the women inmates at the main prison, and say that everywhere they found strong evidences of debasing practices among the male convicts.

The committee is of the opinion that aside from the wretched construction of the main prison most of the evils complained of are largely due to the lease system.

The committee recommends a discontinuation of the lease system and the erection of a new prison. It also recommends that the state purchase or lease coal fields and utilize a large part of the labor of the convicts in mining on state's account. The committee recommends the establishment of the reformatory institution for all criminals under the age of 16 years.

WAS 107 YEARS OLD.

Death of Probably the Oldest Inhabitant of New York City.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The death was announced Thursday of Mrs. Mary Smith at her home, 598 East One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, of apoplexy. Mrs. Smith was 107 years old, and without doubt the senior in years of any other inhabitant in New York city.

According to the certificate of death filed, Mrs. Smith was born in Ireland in 1786. She came to America in 1843, and has lived in New York ever since. She had been a widow for many years.

Agricultural Banks.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 10.—The most important act of the agricultural congress is the recommendation to the government of a scheme for special banks and for loan companies to aid farmers who are paying a tremendous rate of interest for necessary accommodations. President Diaz favors agricultural banks, and it is probable that foreign capitalists who may wish to cooperate with native capitalists would find them a profitable investment, receiving on perfect security at least 9 to 10 per cent.

Battle With Blacks.

BERLIN, March 10.—East African advices state that the German troops defeated the hostile natives at Uniangwira. The hostile loss was very great. The German loss included a German sergeant and 10 native soldiers killed, and Lieutenant Bothmer wounded. The defeat has caused general consternation among the hostile natives.

Railroad Troubles.

FRANKFORT, Ind., March 10.—It is currently believed that the Clover Leaf railroad difficulty can only be adjusted by placing the road in the hands of a receiver, and this is expected to occur at any day. The Charleston men refuse to return to work, and the Delphos men will go out, it is said. President Calloway has promised that the 25th of each month will be established as payday. Another report that receives common credit is to the effect that the Pennsylvania system is trying to get hold of the Clover Leaf.

Pacific Mail's Rival.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The new rival of the Pacific Mail Steamship company inaugurated its San Francisco Panama service Thursday afternoon, when its first steamer embarked from this port. The company is known as the North American Navigation company, and will play an important part in the formation of transoceanic rates.

Ex-President Gonzales Critically Ill.

CIUDAD, Mex., March 10.—Advices have been received here from the city of Sulao, in the state of Guanajuato, that General Manuel Gonzales, ex-president of Mexico, is suffering from a dangerous attack of sickness, and that his death is expected at any time. He is attended by several of the best physicians in the republic.

Dying of Blood Poisoning.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 10.—Mrs. Lotta Spellman, residing at Spratt, a small town west of this city, accidentally cut herself with a knife a few days since. Blood poisoning set in, and her death is momentarily expected.

Jacob H. Vandegrift.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Jacob H. Vandegrift is very ill at his residence on Grimes Hill, Staten Island, and it is not expected that he will recover. He is suffering from congestion of the lungs.

Castoria.

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, sooting syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOR,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
